

TRUSTEES' MEETING

GRAND VIEW RESIDENTS WANT UTILITIES — AMERICAN LEAGION OFFERS SERVICES

The Board assembled at 8:25 p. m., November 20, 1919. All members were present. The minutes of the regular meeting of November 13, 1919, were read and approved.

Status of Grand View Annexed Dist.

A delegation of about fifteen citizens, residents of the Grand View district, was present, and Mr. Elverson addressed the Board in reference to the needs of the Grand View territory, particularly in regard to electric lighting. "Certain matters in regard to that district having been referred to the City Attorney, his report upon the same was taken up in this connection and read. The report stated that in regard to the case now pending in the Supreme Court affecting the validity of the proceedings by which the Grand View territory was annexed to the City of Glendale, may possibly not reach a decision for several months. The territory, however, in the meantime, is under the jurisdiction of the City of Glendale for municipal purposes, and will be subject to municipal taxes for the present year. Under the law, a lien for county taxes attaches against all property as on the first Monday in March of each year. Consequently the property in that territory will be subject to county road tax, these facts raising the question of double taxation, similar to that which applied to the annexation of the Arden Avenue and Kenilworth District last year. The communication of the City Attorney stated further that under the law the Board of Trustees has no legal right to refund these taxes, but that suit might be brought by any citizen interested

RETURN FROM HONEYMOON

Mrs. G. De Korte (formerly Miss Elizabeth Ball), and husband have arrived in Glendale after a three months' honeymoon visiting various parts of the east including Grand Rapids, Michigan, where relatives of the bride reside, Patterson, N. J., where the parents and other relatives of the groom live, New York, Buffalo and Niagara Falls. Their baggage is augmented by the many gifts they received from the friends visited. They have not yet decided where they will make their home, but at present are with the parents of the bride, Mr. and Mrs. Martin Ball, of 410 West Maple street. Mr. De Korte has returned to his work as a printer in Los Angeles.

RESIDENCE CHANGES

C. H. Thompson, the real estate dealer, reports that Mrs. J. C. Finch has just sold her home at 317 Milford street to a new comer from Chicago. She is building for herself a new home on the corner of Brand and Fairview.

Otto Nelson has sold his small bungalow at 431 West Harvard to Mr. and Mrs. LaPort. He is building a new house for himself on the adjoining lot.

Mrs. Maud Jackson, of 346 West Wilson avenue has sold a lot on Broadway, just west of Central, to William Calvert, who has already begun the erection of a house upon which he is building himself.

MOUNTAIN TRAILS

MANY TO BE BUILT OR IMPROVED THIS WINTER IN ANGELES RESERVE BY THE RANGERS

According to news given out by Chief Ranger Thomas W. Sloan, of the Angeles National Forest, a large amount of work on trails and fire breaks is planned for the coming winter. Not only will new ones be made but those already in use will be widened and improved and important telephone lines will be built. As agreed upon by Supervisor R. H. Charlton and Ranger Sloan activities may be outlined as follows:

Ranger Virgil C. De Lapp will have charge of a construction crew that will build a new trail from the mouth of Haines Canyon to the top of Mount Lukins connecting with the present trail from the Arroyo Seco. The new trail is designed to assist fire fighters in keeping fires that may start out of Haines Canyon and away from the Arroyo Seco. It will provide a new route from the Arroyo Seco to Haines canyon.

Ranger F. H. Hayward has been delegated to have charge of the reconstruction of the short-cut trail from West Fork Ranger's Station to Pine Flats. This is the main artery to the Pine Flats, Chiles and Mount

COMMUNITY SING

ADDRESSED BY LIEUT. BOOTH OF VOLUNTEERS OF AMERICA ON PRISON REFORM

Another good audience greeted the director of the Community Sing when he took his place Thursday evening. He put the singers through quite a varied program of song which included "America," "Blest Be the Tie," "Last Night," "Tramp, Tramp, Tramp," "Thanksgiving Song," "Work for the Night Is Coming," "Spanish Cavalier," "Over the Summer Sea," "The Flowers That Bloom in the Spring," and, of course, the "Star Spangled Banner."

About 8:15 Lieut. Booth, son of Maud Ballington Booth of the Volunteers of America, arrived and was introduced by President Alexander Mitchell for a fifteen-minute talk on prison reform.

Mr. Mitchell warmly indorsed him and his cause and said he hoped the reforms he was advocating would be put through "before any of us had to go to prison."

Mr. Booth stated it was the first time he had occupied a public platform in Glendale, but that it would not be the last time; that he was coming again and would speak here two or three times within the next three months.

Lieut. Booth is a fine speaker, though he indulges in no flights of oratory and his message is simple and direct. He spoke rapidly in order to say as much as possible during the time allotted him and closely held the attention and sympathy of his audience. His task is to interest the people of the southern part of the state in prison reform. He explained that a special effort is necessary because our two state prisons—San Quentin and Folsom—are in the northern section so far from Los Angeles that we think of them as northern institutions with which we have little concern. Said he:

"California is the longest state in the country. You are removed from your state prisons by nearly five hundred miles. I do not know of another state in the Union where any part of the state is five hundred miles from its state prison. If you had a state prison in Southern California the problem would come much closer to you."

"In your prisons you have 3500 men and they present one of the greatest problems that faces you. We cannot be sentimental and namby-pamby about it; we must use common sense. Unless those prisons

THANKSGIVING DINNER

D. S. PHILLIPS AND WIFE ENTERTAIN EMPLOYEES OF PUBLIC SERVICE DEPARTMENT

D. S. Phillips, auditor of the Public Service Department, and his charming wife, entertained the employees of the office at their home on Vine street, Thursday evening, at a Thanksgiving dinner. Promptly at seven o'clock the guests were invited to the dining room where a delicious four-course dinner was served. This was a "regular" Thanksgiving dinner, with turkey, cranberry sauce, plum pudding and all that goes with it. After partaking of the feast games and music were enjoyed until a late hour, when very reluctantly the guests departed, declaring Mr. and Mrs. Phillips royal entertainers. Miss Lola Jones, a sister of Mrs. Phillips, assisted in entertaining. Those present, besides the host and hostess, and their young son and daughter, Stanley and Mary Phillips, were Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Webster, Mr. and Mrs. N. J. Ripley, Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Furst, the Misses Besie Mock, Doris Ingledue, Ernestine Lyon, Lola Jones and Nellie Warner, and the Messrs. P. Deiderick, G. Jones, H. Harrison and J. Gibson.

MRS. DANFORD HONORED

Mrs. J. C. Danford of the Public Library was agreeably surprised Thursday afternoon when Miss Dorothy Lee invited Mrs. Danford, Miss Shattuck and Miss Roberts to dine with her in the city. After dinner together they returned to the library where the young ladies presented Mrs. Danford with a gift in honor of her birthday. The gift presented means much to her for in its selection the girls demonstrated that they had anticipated her desires presenting her with "just what she had been wishing for" and presenting it in such a manner that it greatly enhances its value.

WEATHER FORECAST: Fair tonight and Saturday. No important change in temperatures.

PEACE TREATY FIGHT NOT OVER

PREDICTION MADE THAT ITS RATIFICATION WILL BE BIG ISSUE OF 1920 CAMPAIGN

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

WASHINGTON, November 21.—It is considered here that the ratification of the peace treaty is shaping up to be the big issue in the 1920 campaign. Many prominent leaders in both parties are expecting a finish fight before the voters. It is predicted that party lines may break entirely and that the president may be forced to stump the country again.

When the president submits the treaty a second time as he will at the next session of Congress, it will precipitate a big fight in the Foreign Relations committee where Senator Johnson and his associates will attempt to prevent the treaty from being reported out. It is believed the presidential campaign will hinge on the issue of whether the treaty will again be reported to the Senate by the committee or be permitted to lie forever in the committee-room.

COAL SHORTAGE IN MIDDLE WEST

GOVERNORS DISCUSS PLAN OF GOVERNOR HARDING OF IOWA TO SEIZE COAL MINES

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

WASHINGTON, November 21.—United Mine Workers leaders said today they would present a counter proposal to take the place of the wage scale the mine owners offered them at yesterday's conference. It is considered that the prospect of a settlement of the coal situation is brighter.

In the meantime the central western and southwestern states are facing a serious coal shortage. Numerous localities are reporting the institution of "lightless nights", the curtailment of industries, the rationing of coal and the reduction of train service as a means of conservation. Many governors are considering the suggestion of Governor Harding of Iowa that the state seize the coal mines. Governor Cox of Ohio has announced that he supports Harding's plan while Governor Cornwell of Virginia opposes it on the grounds that it would be playing into the hands of the radicals. Governor Sprouls of Pennsylvania declares such action would be unconstitutional.

PRISON FIRES

CONFLAGRATIONS AT SING SING AND AT FORT LEAVENWORTH UNDER INVESTIGATION

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

SING SING PRISON, N. Y., November 21.—Fires believed to be of incendiary origin today destroyed the storage buildings at Sing Sing prison. The loss is estimated at $200,000. The watermains supplying the prison had been cut yesterday.

FORT LEAVENWORTH, November 21.—Fire of unknown origin destroyed five buildings at the Federal Penitentiary here today. The loss is estimated at $150,000. A board of investigation has been convened to determine the cause of the fire.

SUGAR PROFITEERING IN CHICAGO

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

LODGE RESOLUTION MAY BE VETOED

DIVISION OF OPINION ON THE PRESIDENT'S AUTHORITY TO VETO CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

WASHINGTON, November 21.—High Administration officials today announced they believed the president will veto the resolution by Senator Lodge introduced just before Congress adjourned declaring the war at an end if it is passed by the Senate and the House. These leaders said the president has the power under the constitution to veto such a measure.

Supporters of the resolution expressed surprise at this announcement saying they believed the president is without authority to veto a concurrent resolution of this kind. A contest on the question of the president's authority seems to be impending.

ARID LAND RECLAMATION

GOVERNMENT APPROPRIATIONS RECOMMENDED BY WESTERN STATES IRRIGATION CONGRESS

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

SALT LAKE CITY, November 21.—The Western States Irrigation Congress meeting here today recommended that the government provide a quarter of a billion dollars for the reclamation of arid lands in the west.

NEW BUSINESS BLOCK

H. E. NOBLE TO BUILD ONE-STORY BRICK AT 115 NORTH BRAND BOULEVARD

Brand boulevard's business district was quite excited over the news which circulated there Thursday to the effect that the lot on the west side of the street between the numbers 111 and 119 had been purchased by H. E. Noble, of 327 North Jackson street, to be immediately improved with a one-story brick building. Inquiry revealed the fact that the general contract for the building has been let to the Bentley-Schoeneman Company, Mr. Bentley stating that its dimensions would be 50 by 84 feet with front of pressed brick, cement foundations and floors, with Oregon trim on the inside and a composition roof, the contract being in the neighborhood of $6500. Mr. Noble is building to accommodate the Acme Grocery Company, which is taking a five-year lease. Mr. Bentley expects it will be ready for occupancy about the first of January.

Mr. Noble is a new comer in Glendale and is living in a home which he purchased of A. J. Malarkey.

RE-SALES

Burton & Chandler, the realty dealers, have been disposing of some of their recently-acquired properties. For instance: The property at the corner of Orange and Harvard Sts., known as the "Thompson House," a desirable residence of six large rooms, has been sold to Mrs. Webb, widow of Lieut. Henry Webb, who wanted something roomy and close in.

They have also transferred acreage at 1233 Dorothy, formerly known as the "Smith property," which they acquired from Mr. Bradley. Thomas H. Nash is the new owner.

They also report the sale of the Woods property at 610 South Verdugo, an eight-room house, and two acres of ground to Mr. and Mrs. Searles of San Francisco. The property has been unoccupied since the death of Mr. Woods.

A sale was made Thursday evening of the property of C. E. Blake at 457 Palm Drive. The buyer was Mrs. Woollard.

ANTI-ANNEXATIONIST VISITS GLENDALE

Charles Coe of Sawtelle, a member of the executive committee of the Anti-Annexation League of Los Angeles County, visited Glendale Friday and reported that everything is extremely favorable for an early and satisfactory settlement of the Sawtelle and Los Angeles anti-annexation fight and Sawtelle is certain to win. He expressed the hope that no new annexation campaign would develop in Glendale to place her in the position that Sawtelle has been forced to occupy.

COMING CONFERENCE

GLENDALE MAY BE MADE MEETING PLACE FOR QUADRENNIAL SESSION P. U. C.

Glendale has been favorably mentioned as a possible meeting place for the quadrennial session of the Pacific Union Conference of the Seventh-day Adventists by members of the executive committee, who have just closed an important session here. Sacramento was also named as a possibility, the selection of Glendale being contingent upon the completion of arrangements to enlarge the present church building, now located at Wilson avenue and Isabel street.

The committee fixed February 12 to 22 as the date of the quadrennial convention, when delegates will be assembled from the States of California, Arizona, Nevada, Utah and Western Colorado. Officers, to serve for the next four years, will be elected; reports received of work accomplished during the last quadrennial period, and other business of vital importance to the denomination on the Pacific Coast, transacted.

The Seventh-day Adventist denomination is so organized that each member has an equal voice in all business. Every member of the local church has one vote, and each church elects its own officers, who serve in that church, but no other. Each congregation also elects its delegates to the annual or biennial local conference sessions. These delegates select the members of the local conference committee, which handles all local conference business in the interim between sessions, and names the delegates to the union conference meetings. The representation to the union conference meeting is, one delegate for each local conference, and one additional delegate for each 300 members. The

VALENCIAS GO OUT

ERNEST SPARR DISCUSSES CITRUS MARKETS AND THE SUBDIVIDING OF LAND

Ernest Sparr, of the Sparr Packing Company, reports that the last of the season's Valencia's are now going to market. There is still difficulty in getting cars which are arriving four or five days behind the time order, but it is not crippling shipments.

He says the market at the present time is very weak on lemons, but it has been so well sustained heretofore throughout the year, growers are not complaining as there are not many to pick anyway just now. Last year at this time influenza in the east created a demand for citrus fruit which kept the market good.

When asked whether many citrus groves are changing hands, Mr. Sparr answered in the negative, explaining it is doubtful because the prices are held so high. Growers have been making money and are not disposed to let go unless they get a tempting figure.

The coal strike, he said, may affect the car situation some a little later on. In some sections the orange crop will be a lighter one than last year. At best it will be a minimum crop. It is always hard to make estimates until the fruit comes up and begins to show, but the light crop should make good prices reasonably certain. He looks for a good average market.

In this connection Mr. Sparr is very much concerned over the plating and subdividing into small lots of productive acreage by real estate speculators, when this country, he declares, needs all it can raise. He admits it would not be so bad if they would cut up the orange acreage or the truck gardens into five or ten-acre plots, but when it is reduced to ordinary lots representing one-fifth of an acre nothing can be done with it, he says, and it frequently lies idle for five or ten years.

He thought a modification of the single tax idea might help some. He is not in favor of taking taxes off buildings, but does think that idle lands should pay more taxes than productive ones.

MAPLE AVENUE PARTIES

A delightful party was enjoyed by a number of girls and boys when Margaret Baruch and Archie Myers celebrated their birthdays at their joint residence at 218 East Maple avenue. The early part of the afternoon was spent in the playing of games for which prizes were awarded. Then the children danced until the doors to the dining room were thrown open for them to march in and seat themselves at a beautifully-decorated table. The mottoes, and favors, were all of red which made a setting very bright and gay. After bountiful helpings of ice-cream, cake, candy and fruit had been enjoyed, the guests departed with beaming faces and wishing that birthday parties were more frequent. The little guests entertained were: Ida and William Campbell, Helen, Ruth and Johnny Houle, Mary Jane Neal, Rhudora McKee, Wheeler and Curtis Doll, Russell Myers, Archie Myers and Margaret Baruch.

The same evening Miss Martha Myers entertained a number of her friends with dancing and games.

FAREWELL LUNCHEON

BROADWAY P.-T. A. ENTERTAINS FOUR DEPARTING MEMBERS OF EXECUTIVE BOARD

The Executive Board of the Broadway P.-T. A. gave a farewell luncheon Thursday noon to four of the board who are leaving. The luncheon was held at the home of Mrs. Kulp on Wilson avenue and was a very delightful affair. Following the luncheon a business meeting was held, after which they went to the school for the regular meeting of the P.-T. A. A social hour at which tea and cake were served to the guests was held first, the members then going into the kindergarten room for the meeting.

Miss Kneib favored with two delightful solos and Mrs. Kuhnney and Mrs. Horner pleased greatly with piano duets, after which the speaker, Mrs. McRoberts, was introduced by the president, Mrs. Kulp.

Mrs. McRoberts is president of the Manual Arts High School P.-T. A. and gave an intensely interesting talk on the work of the P.-T. A. in Los Angeles. She spoke particularly of the Americanization work it is doing; also of many other branches of its work.

Broadway P.-T. A. now has a membership of 138.

SOCCER BALL EVENTS

COLUMBUS AND PACIFIC TEAMS WIN CHAMPIONSHIPS IN DIVISIONS 1 AND 2

Columbus avenue's team won the championship of Division No. 1 this week by defeating Central avenue with a score of 2 to 0. Allen Lovell and Wayne Yarrick kicked the goals for Columbus. Russell Thompson was another good player on that team. Ralph Ryan, captain of the Central avenue team, Perry Townsend and Fred McCormick were good players for Central avenue.

Another game played this week took place Wednesday between the Cerritos second team and Colorado, the two tail-enders of Division 2 of the league. The score was one to nothing in favor of Colorado, and it was the first game the Colorado boys have won this year. They were aided somewhat by the fact that some of the Cerritos players were not up in scholarship and were therefore not permitted to participate in the game. Raygene Doll kicked the goal for Colorado on a dribble from Robert Conklin.

Thursday afternoon on the Colorado field was played the championship game of Division No. 2. In the first quarter Pacific avenue had rather the best of the play. The ball was in the Broadway area practically during the whole quarter. Raymond Bullock, of the Broadway team, handled the ball, thereby giving a foul to Pacific. William McClammy kicked the ball a short distance to John Copeland who kicked a goal for Pacific. During the second quarter the play was very even, the ball going back and forth between the two teams until John Copeland broke away from the crowd and again kicked a goal, giving Pacific a lead of 2 to 0. During this first half the Pacific boys were greatly aided by the wind which was blowing toward the Broadway goal. Then a queer thing happened. At the beginning of the second half the wind changed and the Broadway boys again had to kick against it. During the third quarter Arman Dair, of the Broadway, kicked the ball very close to the edge of the goal where it was caught by Frederick Whitaker, of the Pacific. There were no goal posts (they were stolen at Hallowe'en time), and the referee had to determine by a pile of rocks whether the ball was between the goals or not. In order to be sure he ruled it was not a goal. That gave rise to a great deal of dissatisfaction on the part of the Broadway boys, who thought they had been robbed of a point. During the rest of the game there was hard kicking and good playing, but neither side was able to score again. After the game the two captains got together to talk the dispute over and the Pacific boys admitted they thought the umpire had made a mistake and so Broadway was credited with the goal, which made the score 2 to 1.

The first game next week will be played on the Columbus field, the second on Pacific avenue ground and if a third game is needed to decide the Grammar School Championship it will be played on the Intermediate, a neutral field.

MOUNTAIN TRAILS

Waterman region. This ranger will also have charge of the construction of a telephone line from the West Fork station to the Pine Flats. In this reconstruction work steep grades are to be eliminated.

Ranger A. J. Mueller has been assigned to superintend the construction of a trail which will start at Spring Camp, west of Monrovia Peak which will connect with the Monrovia Peak trail to the north and the Monrovia-Santa Anita trail on the south. That section has a heavy brush covering and will be made more accessible by the new trail. The present trail on the divide between the West Fork and Santa Anita and Fish Canyons is to be widened.

Ranger Frank E. Dunne, who will be assisted by Ranger Roy E. Tuttle, will have charge of a large construction gang that will build the West Fork trail from the mouth of Bear Canyon west to the mouth of Devil's Canyon. It will not only make the section more accessible to fire fighters but will open up to hikers a very beautiful part of the mountains.

The construction of the Roberts Canyon trail north of Azusa will be in charge of Ranger H. C. Franklin. The trail will run north. It will connect with the Monrovia trail and will increase facilities for the protection of the watersheds of San Gabriel and Monrovia canyons.

A new system of firebreaks is to be constructed in the Arroyo Seco of which Ranger W. D. Marx is to have charge. This is the source of the water supply of Pasadena and its protection from fires which may start in the Tujunga is highly important. The work will start in December.

The present Millard trail is to be extended this winter over the divide into Bear Canyon and thence to the Arroyo Seco trail below Switzer's. This, too, will serve the double purpose of protection and of opening up fresh and beautiful camping grounds.

their new home on Honolulu avenue.

It is supposed that the picture shows at the school auditorium will soon begin again and tickets are now being sold by the La Crescenta school children. Everybody buy your tickets now.

The Civic Center Committee of La Crescenta wishes to announce a series of motion pictures at the school-house, beginning Friday evening at 8:00, November 28th, and continuing thereafter every alternate Friday as long as the attendance warrants.

They hope that everyone in our Valley will come out for these shows and make them the success that they should be and can, if everyone will come and bring their friends. It is only by having a large attendance that the committee can afford to secure the best films obtainable, and these are the kinds they wish to show. They are able to show better films at a less price, owing to the fact that all the labor is performed gratis by the committee and that there is no profit in operating these shows. They are given by the people, through this committee, and for the people.

The admission for adults is 15c. A season ticket of ten shows for $1.25. In order to get the best films they have to be booked a long time in advance and it is necessary to sell a certain number of these tickets in order to contract for these superior films.

Avail yourself of this opportunity and thereby make it possible for your neighbor to do the same.

The first show will be Mary Pickford in one of her inimitable parts, entitled "Caprice." There will also be a one-reel cartoon comedy for the children.

Synopsis of "Caprice"
In this photoplay, Miss Pickford is wooed and won by a youth from the city. His father opposes the match, but the youth marries the girl and later realizes that his father was right when he said Mercy Baxter was not the social equal of his son. The bride is taken home by her father and later sent to a boarding school, where her chum proves to be her sister-in-law; but the wife conceals her identity. At a commencement ball, the husband meets his wife, but he fails to recognize her. All's well that ends well, as the sequel proves.

RUFFLES HERE AND RUFFLES THERE

(By Margaret Rohe)

Belinda is very much ruffled these days. Up one side, down t'other and devious ways.

And not just her garments are ruffled 'tis true. Belinda's sweet temper is oft ruffled too.

NEW YORK, Nov. 21.—An eruption of ruffles has become almost a universal epidemic in the fashionable world. They are breaking out on all sides—feminine sides of course—and flaunting their flamboyant fluffiness with fetching fascination.

Ruffles are used most effectively as a first aid to hips—sort of reinforcements on the side lines. They run up and down, in diagonal cascades and foregather in clusters and tiers. They present a diversity of edges pinked, raveled, scalloped, piped, blanket-stitched in wool, silk or metallic threads and even finished with an ordinary selvage.

Accordion pleating is a new wrinkle or rather an old one revived and entire skirts composed of three deep accordion-pleated ruffles are very smart in serge with demure little, old-fashioned basques buttoned down the front to top them off. Knife pleating of the narrow ruffles that are omnipresent as hip trimmings cut quite a figure as the ruffle finish, and they are as apt to be used upside down as right side up when they finish the bottom of a skirt or sleeve. In fact, you can't go wrong on what you do to a ruffle. The more perverse and eccentric and even bizarre it is the better to break the monotony of a hitherto unruffled existence.

Ruffles are no more confined to light and fluffy materials either. Designers this season are ruffling duvetyns, velveteens, serges and gabardines with unbiased impartiality but often biased ruffles. A Pompeian red duvetyn with cascade ruffles over each hip extending to the knee shows the edges of the ruffles raveled to a depth of an inch and a half. The short skirt is raveled on the edge as are also the edges of the short tight sleeves.

A mahogany velveteen has three short ruffles piped in orange over each hip while an orange piped panel of the velveteen extends plainly down the front and back to give the necessary flat effect to the fore and rear.

Something to fasten our best ruffles to is the cartridge silk that is a left over from the war the government is now offering to the best dressers for a piece of peace dress goods. Of purest silk weave and of natural color it offers great possibilities as a perfect dress material since it takes to dye as a duck to water. As most, if not all, of our regular dress silk is practically all tin and tint, a silk that is as guiltless of anything save what the silkworms spun, as is this cartridge silk, is sure to hit the bull's eye of popular favor and fire both Beau Brummell and Dame Fashion with a mad desire for some. It is a question whether the men will beat the ladies to it and use up its shimmering lengths for Palm Beach suits, silken shirts and pajamas but she will be a wise virgin indeed who hastens and buys up all the glistening yards she can. Incased in cartridge silk with a dash of powder, too, what a wondrous chance is here to set all hearts aflame.

POST DANCE
GLENDAL POST, NO. 117, OF AMERICAN LEGION TO GIVE DANCE

Members and friends of the local Post of the American Legion are looking forward with the utmost of pleasure to Post No. 117's next monthly dance, which takes place Saturday evening of this week in the Masonic Temple. The few of Glendale's younger set who were so unfortunate as to miss the Legion's last big affair have heard so many favorable reports in its regard that many of them have already made reservations for Saturday evening's frolic. Tickets for the entertainment have been distributed and the committee in charge has hopes of even exceeding last month's splendid record.
The Legion is composed of the ex-service men of this city and the purpose of these monthly dances, in addition to the social viewpoint, is to raise sufficient funds for their new home, which they hope to build during the coming year. The clubrooms are now located at 106 North Brand boulevard and the boys are striving diligently in an endeavor to obtain a home of their own. So bear this in mind and come out and enjoy yourself Saturday evening, incidentally helping your local ex-service men. Admission for the dance will be one dollar per couple.

Mrs. W. C. Alvord, of 314 West Broadway, is enjoying a visit from her father, John Moss, of Danbury, Nebraska. Mr. Moss says Nebraska farmers are making money, nevertheless are discontented and want to be "on the move."
O. G. Rudie, formerly of St. Cloud, Minnesota, who purchased five acres of property surrounding 546 West Broadway, is laying the foundation for his new home, a modern 6-room bungalow. The old house, which he now occupies, will be converted into an up-to-date residence also, to be offered for rent.
Women of the Glendale Presbyterian Church will meet at the church Friday to complete sewing they have been doing for the Tooker Memorial Hospital, the Tucson Industrial School, the Florence Crittenden Mission and the Indian Wells Hospital. They expect to finish the work and pack Christmas boxes to be dispatched right away.
A party of five Pittsburg, Pa., people, Mrs. Crumpton, Mrs. Wood, Mrs. Kinsey, Miss Young and Master Kenneth Fleming, arrived yesterday, and are the guests of Mrs. W. H. Bucher at 600 West Broadway. BIRTHDAY DINNER
The wife and children of Ernest E. Harwood, principal of the Ceritos Avenue School, surprised him with a little celebration of his birthday Thursday evening. It took the form of a four-course dinner for which elaborate decorations had been provided in a white and green color scheme. These centered in a fancy basket suspended from the chandelier above the table filled with roses and orange blossoms. The favor baskets filled with candy were also of white and green. Covers were laid for Mr. and Mrs. Harwood, Ruth and William Harwood and for Mrs. Eustace B. Moore, who was the only dinner guest outside of the family. A beautiful birthday cake indicated that the guest of honor had attained the ripe age of 29. Following the feast, Mr. and Mrs. McCoy joined the party and a very pleasant social evening was enjoyed, during which Mr. Harwood gave reminiscences of his childhood and early youth.
MAKE EXCEPTION
The Glendale Evening News makes one exception to the rule of charging for all announcements. A little more than a year ago scores of our young men had $30 a month jobs. They were in foreign countries or military camps in this country, suffering hardships, facing the enemy's guns or lying wounded in hospitals while we were praying for their safe return. Nothing was too good for the boys then. Now that they have returned and have organized themselves for further usefulness to their country and have taken up the fight against anarchy, a foe as dangerous as Prussianism, we all owe them something. We think no one can criticize us for publishing announcement notices for the American Legion free of charge. Go to it, boys. If you organize as well as you defended your country, you will organize well.
Long Beach dogs are killing the squirrels in the parks there. Why not have the city council pass an ordinance forbidding it? It would work as well as some of the ordinances intended to restrain humans from doing what they shouldn't.
The Highland Messenger of last week makes a correction in an obituary of the week before, in which the printer made one word "skinning" instead of "spinning." Without knowing the details we would hazard the guess that the point was well taken.

What's all the Excitement at 107 N. Brand?

Everybody, young and old, is interested in the window of Christmas toys.

Childhood days seem not so far away for the oldest of us as we gaze at this wonderfully alluring display of toys, and think how such a marvelous exhibit would have delighted us when we were children.

The children do not philosophise but gaze in delighted wonder and implore Mamma or Daddy to buy them this or that and insist that they cannot wait until Santa Claus comes.

The dolls of all sizes, the miniature dining sets for the doll family, the tiny kitchen ranges with all kinds of cooking utensils and pretty dishes, the bedroom furniture for the dolls, the bright beads and hundreds of other pretty things that delight little girls are here.

No less attractive are the miniature railways and trains, the automobiles, ambulances, delivery cars, airplanes, wagons, guns, building blocks and everything to delight the heart of a youngster.

TUJUNGA

Mrs. Du Prez had the misfortune to have her house burned to the ground on Tuesday morning. With the exception of two or three articles of furniture the house and contents were a total loss. It is not known just how the fire started whether from electric wires or from the oil stove that was left burning while the inmates were out of the house. The house and contents were insured.

Mrs. Warren has sold her home place to a daughter of Mrs. Bohannan on Marshall street. Mrs. Warren will remain in Los Angeles at her home there.

Mrs. Charles Dean sold her property on Sunset boulevard to Elizabeth Baer of Los Angeles, who will make her home here.

The need of a small hotel here ought to make someone get busy and erect one, for every day we turn away people who desire room and board.

Roads are being made, pipes laid for water, and every available man is put to work and others will be brought in on account of the need for faster work. A number of houses are already being built, and more to follow. The sale of lots continues with unabated zeal and more are daily being laid out. It surely looks as if Tujunga would soon be a city of some importance. We who have waited for this time and not faltered in our faith in its ultimate growth are rejoicing daily and will surely have a grand Thanksgiving next week as we have much to be thankful for.

We have a new milkman who sends milk every day from La Canada, and he is sure a Godsend, as no milk was to be had save from one or two private parties and there was a strong call for milk. Most of the goats in this section are at the end of the milk period so that, too, is a luxury, but now we are feeling better over the situation.

We have a new industry started in this section. A poultry exchange at the place formerly occupied by Mr. Burlingame, on El Centro. Mr. Stansbury, who purchased the place, expects to make it a thriving business.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Moore have rented the Holmes cottage to try our fine winter climate, and Mr. Eckart will occupy the home of Mr. Correa on San Ysidro Road. Not another vacant house in this burg.

Commencing Saturday, November 22nd, another daily schedule will be added to the regular daily stage which would enable the Board of Trustees to refund the money without incurring personal responsibility. In the opinion of the City Attorney, the annexation does not affect at the present time, the boundaries of existing school districts. In the opinion of the City Attorney, the judgment of the Superior Court which decreed that the proceedings were in all respects valid and legal, will be affirmed by the higher court when the case is heard. The Chairman of the Board assured the committee that it is the disposition of the members of the Board of Trustees to do everything possible toward providing the citizens of the Grand View District with the services of our public utilities and that with this idea in view an attempt will be made to work out a plan by which the light service may be furnished to that territory in the near future.

The following communication was presented to the Board:

"Nov. 13, 1919.

J. H. Heinmiller, Sr., Laborer Forestry Dept.

On motion of Trustee Woodberry, the City Clerk was instructed to advertise for bids to furnish a carload of forty (40) foot poles. Bids to be opened at eight o'clock p. m., December 4, 1919.

On motion of Trustee Shaw, the request of M. J. McNaughton filed at the regular meeting of November 13, 1919, for the removal of a pole on San Fernando Road, corner of Colorado St., was denied.

SEWING MACHINES BRING MONTENEGRO EDUCATION

PODGORITZA, Montenegro. — Twenty-nine American sewing machines that have produced hundreds of garments for the poor of Podgoritza are today the pathfinders in industrial education for women in Montenegro.

The sewing machines had been used in the workroom of the American Red Cross here, where native women were taught to sew and to make over American hospital garments for their poor. They will form the nucleus of the first industrial school for girls that Montenegro has ever seen.

After turning out 2112 garments for women and children in two months, the supply of material gave out, because of the difficulties of Montenegron transportation. The machines stood idle. But the women who had become so expert in sewing with them held a consultation. They wanted the machines to keep on working.

A committee under Mrs. Corovitch, the forewoman who had cut out everyone of the 2112 garments with the care and thrift of an American chapter worker, presented their plan to the chief nurse. They asked for the loan of the work-room and of the twenty-nine machines to start a sewing school for the girls of Podgoritza.

Never before in the history of Montenegro has there been industrial education for young women. The men, if they have money, may go to the gymnasium. But education for girls—never! The twenty-three women who had gained American skill in two months had learned something and with the aid of the Americans they planned the first sewing school. The school has just begun, after turning away three times the applicants it could admit.

El Dorado county's 1919 apple harvest has been the most successful one ever seen.

HAWKINS IS FLYING

LIEUT. WALTER B. HAWKINS
DOES STUNT FOR CITY
EDITOR'S BENEFIT

By Gilbert A. Cowan

City Editor of the Morning Delta Flying over the City of Visalia Saturday afternoon shortly after three o'clock, former army aviator, Lieut. Walter B. Hawkins, of the Mercury Aircraft Corporation, accompanied by the writer, performed stunts for the enjoyment of thousands of town folk and suburban visitors.

For the past three days, Lieut. Hawkins has been providing aerial joy rides for local aviation enthusiasts—good long rides of 20 miles—which thrilled them to their hearts' content. Several score had made the trip safely when the intrepid army instructor of war times decided he owed a little debt in the way of thrills to the city editor of this sheet.

Way back in the winter of 1916 the two of us skidded down a mountain road in red clay in one of Henry Ford's go-devils, aforesaid skidding taking place after dark, in a rain, and on the treacherous road between Monte Vista and San Fernando valleys. We were working on a local newspaper.

And it was a real thrill, to quote Lieutenant Hawkins, who said that "it took more nerve to drive that Ford through the mud and rain than it does to pilot an airplane." Both had taken turns at the car wheel and each sorely disgusted at that mode of travel in those days before the U. S. entered the war and our enlistment in the air service.

So yesterday we again rode together in the limousine of the air, the American Curtiss model of the Mercury company, and Lieutenant Hawkins proved to my satisfaction that you can turn corners easier in an air-bus than in the car of the road.

After ascending to a decent height, some two thousand feet in the air, and giving good old Visalia the once-over, the show started. First it was an example of the "falling leaf" flying; then ascending again a spiral was done very prettily, which called for "loud" applause on my part, giving the pilot the high sign that the stunts were being enjoyed.

Seeing that I was game for a good time, although a novice as a passenger, he put me through a couple of Immelman turns—a sort of loop the loop which gives one the impression of eating breakfast the night before, or some other equally absurd reverse attitude of affairs.

This little bit of jazz might excite some, but it only called forth more glee on my part, and the friendly aviator saw then that thrills were not for newspapermen. As a result, he planed high over the landing field in a series of "zooms" which would have made a salt-sea sailor sick to see—but I withstood the billowy bobbles over the bubbles of air, and when he finally landed the machine more gracefully than I had ever bumped out of a ditch in the Ford, I decided that it was "flying for me" in the future.

Not that I am going to be an aviator, but if ever the day arrives when news of the countryside is to be obtained most efficiently, it will be the "airplane reporter" who will get the facts first.

Just think of it! John Jones, or some other well-known rancher, was burning brush; another rancher was leaving his farmyard in his family "fiver" for the Visalia shopping trip. You can see the most minute event occurring on earth from heavenly heights—provided one does not fly too high and knows the lay of the land.

All told there were an even dozen who enjoyed flights with Lieutenant Hawkins yesterday. He is courteously assisted in the ground work by former army sergeant, G. O. Steinpfed, expert motor mechanic. Prior to each day's flights the mechanism is given a thorough inspection and everything made safe for passenger flights.

Today there will be many more take advantage of the flying circus, which is located at the landing field on the Dinuba highway, at the edge of Visalia. It will leave Monday noon for Reedley, where flights will be made for two days.—Visalia Delta.

GREAT SALT LAKE SALTIER SINCE 1909

SALT LAKE CITY, Utah, Nov. 21.—Great Salt Lake is saltier now than at any time since 1909, but a good rain will freshen it again, according to J. Cecil Alter, government meteorologist.

"The level of the lake is now lower than it has been since January 15, 1909," said Alter today. The absolute amount of salt in the lake probably does not vary appreciably, and has not varied since it was first seen by white men, but since the amount of water varies with evaporation and precipitation, the relative salinity increases as the level falls.

Alter said the low stage of the lake usually occurs in January when the feeder streams are frozen at their source, and that the high stage usually occurs late in June, shortly after the season of heaviest precipitation, and after the period of rapidly melting snow.

COMMUNITY SING

are working out the purpose for which they were intended and bettering the men who are put there, they are a failure.

"We are not building our prisons to punish men but to reform them; not to wreck and break them down mentally, morally and physically. We are building them to be institutions of uplift, to send them back into the world better and finer in character.

"There are conditions existing in the prisons of your state which must be changed before you can get anywhere near perfection. You have splendid prison officials and are fortunate in that. In some states they have placed in office in their prisons men utterly unfit to control the men under them. Your wardens, Johnston and Smith, are fine men. Johnston is very competent for the work he has undertaken, but there is one thing he must have—you back of him. He must feel your support and interest. He said to me: 'Go to the people of the State of California and tell them we will remake the men in prison if they will give those men a fair chance when they go back into the world.'

"You have something else in California. You have two state prisons only partially built." He then referred to the state prison buildings which have been started and never completed because the appropriation gave out and because the public has not been sufficiently interested to press those appropriations. In consequence, the men are huddled in old, unsanitary buildings, sometimes several in a cell, under the worst possible conditions, where shops and workrooms are badly lighted and ventilated. San Quentin, he said, has one of the worst shops in its Jute Mill. Warden Johnston would not let a wheel turn there if it were not for the fact that it would be worse for the men to be idle.

"Another thing we want to do away with in California," he continued, "is king's pleasure sentences, the system under which a man may be given a long sentence if the judge's coffee happens to be poor that morning. A human being is a human being, and if a man gets out of the wrong side of the bed in the morning he cannot help its affecting his attitude towards his work. We are going to have a judge and jury solely for the purpose of determining the degree of guilt of a prisoner and then he will pass into the jurisdiction of a commission made up of say a lawyer, a doctor, a clergyman, a layman, perhaps five in all, and these five men will look into that prisoner's record to find out everything that has affected him morally, mentally and physically which may have led to the deed he did, and they will determine the sentence.

"I want to say something to you about Christmas. You have been singing Thanksgiving songs. To me Thanksgiving is a preparation for Christmas. For many years the Volunteers of America have been working behind prison walls in California. We have sent word to the prisoners in San Quentin and Folsom, to every man there who has a wife or children in Southern California who are in suffering and poverty, that if they will send us names and addresses we will see to it that those wives and children are provided with a real Christmas. That means that there will not be a table among the families of prisoners where there will be all bitterness. Think of the thousands of families in this country where mothers and little children will sit down to tables at which there will be the empty chairs of those legally dead in disgrace and dishonor."
